November 1, 2026

23rd Sunday after Pentecost

*Those who are able may stand

PRELUDE "Symphony No. 5, Mvmt. II (excerpt)" by P.I. Tchaikovsky

WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS AND MINDS

John Calvin "A Little Book on Christian Life"

"The gospel is not a doctrine of the tongue, but of life. It cannot be grasped by reason and memory only, but it is fully understood when it possesses the whole soul and penetrates to the inner recesses of the heart."

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP - (responsive)

Leader: Jesus calls us not to seek honor or prominence,
People: for true greatness is found in serving others.
Leader: The world exalts the proud,
People: but the Lord lifts up the lowly.
Leader: We set aside titles and status
People: to follow one Teacher and one Lord.
Leader: We become servants of God and one another
People: as we worship the Oe who sent Jesus to serve.

HYMN #773 – "Heaven Shall Not Wait"

PRAYER OF THE DAY (unison)

O God, in a world focused on fame and popularity, recall us to your service. Inspire us to honor and esteem those who serve you by serving others. Number us among your saints, not by our own efforts, but through the work of your Spirit in and among us. Empower us to become more and more your people. Amen.

HYMN #582 "Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me" (unison)

Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me,
and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me,
and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen
World without end, without end. Amen.
World without end, without end. Amen.

World without end, without end. Amen.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

O God, we confess that, in spite of your presence and your call, we find it difficult to follow you.

You call us to proclaim righteousness and justice, but we are silent. You call us to listen, but we are consumed by our own concerns and affairs. You call us to trust in you, but we are distracted by other loyalties. You call us to justice and compassion, but we do not step out in faith.

Forgive and transform us, O God, that we may follow Jesus, the founder of our faith, and walk the path of your saints.

SILENT PRAYERS OF CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

PASSING THE PEACE

ANTHEM "Unwavering" by Matt Maher

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION (unison) Joshua 3:9/Psalm 43:30

We draw near to hear your words, O LORD our God. Send out your light and your truth to lead us to your holy hill and to your dwelling.

1ST SCRIPTURE READING: Matthew 23:1-12 (p. 804)
Response after reading: This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

2ND SCRIPTURE READING: I Thessalonians 2:9-13 (p. 959)
Response after reading: This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

SERMON "More Than Words"*

If you have prayer concerns or joys today, please use our Prayer Request Card and give it to an Usher during this hymn.

HYMN #326 – "For All The Saints"

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH – (The Nicene Creed) (unison)

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

INVITATION TO THE OFFERING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM "In the Rising and the Setting Sun"
by Kate Williams, arr. James Biery

SONG OF DEDICATION #710 "We Lift Our Voices"

We lift our voices; we lift our hands; we lift our lives up to you:
we are an offering. Lord, use our voices; Lord, use our hands;
Lord, use our lives; they are yours: we are an offering.
All that we have, all that we are, all that we hope to be, we give to you, we give to you. We lift our voices; we lift our hands; we lift our lives up to you: we are an offering; we are an offering.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

ALL SAINTS REMEMBRANCE AND PRAYER

We remember with thanksgiving those who have gone before us in faith, who have shared with us in God's gifts of life, of peace and forgiveness through the hearing of the gospel, of new life and the promise of resurrection through his Son in baptism, who with us have been fed the body and blood of his Son at this holy table, and who now have been called to the heavenly feast that will never end.

We remember:

- Tom Brokenbrough
- Don Carroll
- Virginia Garvine
- Evelyn Hayes
- Ann Lawrence
- Ken Lewis
- Ray Liebfried
- Barbara Winters
- John Winter

Let us pray

Lord, look upon your holy Christian Church, the communion of saints here on earth. Strengthen and keep us in the one true faith and make us grow in fervent love for you and for one another. Bring us with your saints to glory everlasting, that with them we may sing your praise forever; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER CONCERNS

As each group is prayed for, the minister will say: Lord in Your Mercy, and the people will respond: Hear our prayer.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE Luke 13:29

In the Kingdom of God, people will come from east and west, from north and south, and take their places at the banquet in the kingdom of God. Come, you are who God's family, and join in the feast.

PRAYER OF GREAT THANKSGIVING From Psalm 107/Micah 3:8

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Gathered from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south, and redeemed from trouble by you, we give you thanks, O LORD. You are good and your steadfast love endures forever. When we wander in the wasteland, when we can find no place to be, when we are hungry and thirsty and our soul faints within us, we cry out to you and you deliver us from our distress.

Lead us by a straight path. Show us a place to be. You satisfy the thirsty. You fill the hungry with good things. You turn the desert into pools of water. You transform a parched land into springs of water. You give life to the hungry, establishing a place for the sowing of fields and the planting of vineyards--and for receiving a fruitful yield.

And so, O God, we thank you for your steadfast love, and praise you for your wonderful works to humankind. We bring our whole selves to you—our prides and our joys, our downfalls and our troubles. Gather us together from near and far to dwell with you, so that no part of your body may be lost or destroyed.

Embrace us in your goodness and everlasting, steadfast love. Feed us. Satisfy our thirst. Prosper the work of our hands. Bless the fields and vineyards that you plant and nourish among us. Empower us to bear fruit for your kingdom by following the way of Jesus, serving and sacrificing and becoming your saints.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come again.

O God, send your Spirit upon this bread and wine, fruit of field and vineyard. Fill us with your Spirit and with justice and might. As you transformed Jesus' dead body by the power of new life, embolden us in service to your kingdom, transformed by you for the transformation of the world. Amen.

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER (responsive)
All believers who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and all children who have received instruction in the meaning of the sacrament are invited to gather together at this feast.

HYMN #523 – "Gift of Finest Wheat"

CHARGE AND BENEDICTION Pastor will speak

POSTLUDE "Allerseelen" by Richard Strauss

About the Music

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.”

Tchaikovsky was fate-haunted; his Fourth and Fifth symphonies both have a distinct “fate” motive, though similar in having a march-like feel (and comparable to the famous and supposed “fate” motive in Beethoven’s Fifth). Living with frequent poor spirits and doubt, his eventual estimation of his Fifth symphony was that it (or at least the last triumphal movement) was a “failure,” and yet, its fate was to become one of his most popular works. The second movement begins with a famous and wistful melody for horn, heard in today’s prelude.

The author of the verses for “In the Rising and The Setting Sun,” Mary Louise Bringle writes the text was “inspired by a litany of remembrance written by Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer. The litany begins, ‘At the rising sun and at its going down, We remember them.’ The hymn text follows much of the pattern of that litany, speaking of seasons and occasions during which we recall those we have loved and lost, though the hymn moves beyond the original in its final affirmation of ‘the resurrection and the life.’”

Richard Strauss’ effusive lyricism, with its autumnal luster, molds beautifully a text of a mourner on All Soul’s Day beckoning for a lost loved one to act as they did alive, “as once you did in May.” Though plangent, it is not tragic, and the mourner doesn’t seem to despair.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.”

We have the blessing of having Rev. Dr. Barb Hedges-Goettl leading our worship today. Here is a little about her.

A brief bio:

Pastor Barb is the wife of Rev. Dr. Len Hedges-Goettl, who worked with FPC-Newark before Pastor Dan came and also preached at Dan's ordination. Len preached last week and will also preach 11/8. Barb has worked in schools in Wisconsin and Pennsylvania as a special education teacher and most recently served as interim pastor at Makemie Presbyterian Church in Snow Hill, MD. She has a PhD in Liturgical Studies from Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, IL and particularly enjoys crafting liturgy. She currently serves as chair of the Presbytery of New Castle's Church Health and Vitality (CHaV) Committee.

Venture In Faith (VIF) 2027

Stewardship is the cultivation, management, and distribution of God's bounty to us as individuals and families; and the Church's provision of God's gifts made available by God's people. Each year First Presbyterian Church asks its members to review what they have given with an eye toward meeting any unmet personal goals, as well as increasing gifts for greater support of God's work by the Church.

We build our stewardship through donations of time, talent, and treasure.

- We can commit our time to serve on boards and committees, as well as organizations that benefit and serve our brothers and sisters in the local community and throughout the world.
- We can commit our talents to perform the tasks and projects necessary to maintain and build the places where we worship and spread the Good News.
- We can commit our treasure to meet the expenses of organizing, teaching, and articulating the Gospel for a world that so desperately needs to understand and live by it.

By financial support, member volunteer efforts, and the sharing of facilities, First Pres Church has contributed toward meeting the needs of the community and the world. Examples of these include, but by no means are limited to, the following: Hope Dining Room, Food for Success pantry, the recovering communities, missionary efforts around the world, our sister church in Dinanga, alternative gift market, refugee family resettlement, and Scouts of America.

The Session of First Presbyterian Church of Newark asks that you give prayerful thought and consideration to what you believe our church could and should be doing to feed, clothe, shelter, prepare, and inspire those who do not have enough. Share with the Session the opportunities you see, and express your commitment of time, talent, and treasure for 2027 on the attached Venture In Faith form.

And always remember the words of the late Dr. Ed Gliwa, a saint of First Pres, "Give until it feels good."

Venture In Faith (VIF) 2027 Pledge Form

Please complete this form and return it by placing in the collection plate, giving it to the church office, emailing to fpchurch@firstpresnewark.org, or mailing to First Presbyterian Church, 292 West Main Street, Newark, DE 19711. Your response will help the church plan its activities and outreach efforts for the coming year. It is not necessary to sign this form. Your commitment is between you and God.

On Sunday, November 8, after worship, a Quilt of Valor presentation ceremony will be held for some of our First Presbyterian military veterans. It will be held in Memorial Hall starting at 11:30. We will honor and comfort our veterans with a handmade quilt presented by the Piecemakers Quilt Club of Whispering Woods, Middletown. What is the story of Quilts of Valor? It began in 2003 when founder Catherine Roberts had a dream of a quilt covering and comforting a soldier returning from conflict and service to our country. To date over 460,000 quilts have been awarded. For more information go to their website: qovf.org.

Please be sure to join us for this truly moving presentation. Of course, food and drink will be served!
